6.12.030 - Refusal to report prohibited.

No person responsible for any dog or other animal showing symptoms of rabies, or that acts in a manner which would lead to a reasonable suspicion that such dog or animal may have rabies, or whenever it is shown that any dog or other animal has bitten any person, shall refuse or fail to submit such dog or animal to inspection or examination by the health officer or his/her representative in order to ascertain whether or not such dog or animal is afflicted with rabies.

6.12.040 - Dog or other animal bite—Report.

Any person having knowledge that any dog or other animal has bitten any person shall immediately and without delay advise the director or the police department of such fact, furnishing such information as he/she may possess relative to the identity of the animal, the person responsible for the animal and the person bitten.

California Penal Code Sec. 597s – Animal Abandonment.

Animal Abandonment: Anyone who abandons an animal is subject to a $500 fine and/or up to six months in jail. An animal is deemed to be abandoned under the provisions of this chapter when it is placed in the custody of a veterinarian, boarding kennel owner, or any person for treatment, board, or care and:

(1) Having been placed in such custody for an unspecified period of time the animal is not removed within fifteen days after notice to remove the animal has been given to the person who placed the animal in such custody or having been so notified the person depositing the animal refuses or fails to pay agreed upon or reasonable charges for the treatment, board, or care of such animal, or;

(2) Having been placed in such custody for a specified period of time the animal is not removed at the end of such specified period or the person depositing the animal refuses to pay agreed upon or reasonable charges for the treatment, board, or care of such animal.
